Don't forget to book..

Dear <<First Name>>,

We hope you enjoyed the long Easter weekend and managed to get a good training ride under your belt!

This is the eighth email we've sent out, but head to the Rider Information Platform to check out anything you might have missed from us.

Don't forget that bookings are still open for bike and rider transport, extra luggage and laundry.

If you would like to add any of these to your registration, please head to the Rider Information Platform to find out more and also for the links to book

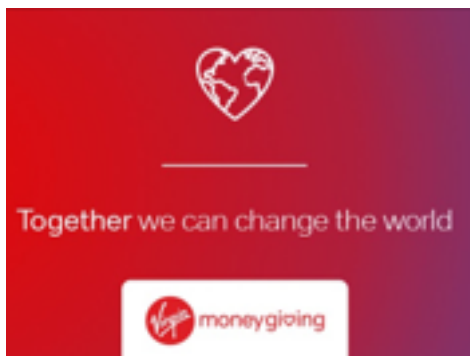

You can also purchase additional merchandise from our online Threshold Sports Shop so get kitted out with jerseys, hoodies and more, and take pride in the event you're doing!

Friends that missed out?

Don't worry if your friends have missed out on a fully priced package for the 2019 ride, there is still the option to take part via a charity place this year for one of our amazing charity partner from just £449!

To find out more about our charity packages, click here.

Virgin Money Giving

Get started today with our official fundraising partner Virgin Money Giving.

It's simple to set up and you can create a page in just a few clicks. If you fundraise through Virgin Money Giving you will have access to personal fundraising support from their helpdesk, a dedicated fundraising hub and as they're not for profit more of your donations will be sent directly to the charity.

Create your page today and together we can make a difference. Already fundraising? There are loads of articles to get you to your target on the Virgin Money Giving Fundraising Hub. Check it out.

Responsible riding

The route for Deloitte RAB is going to take you across 980 miles of the country, which averages at over 100 miles a day.

To help you remain fresh and alert, we've found this article on the Bicycling website on how to prevent fading on a long ride.
